WOMEN IN TECHNOLOGY

Trapeze®

Lesley Johnstone

Job title: Operations Manager

Time in Industry: 25 years

❝ I knew that I could do and achieve more so I decided to go to Uni to undertake a computing degree. ❞

Advice for anyone starting out in the technology industry:
If you want it, work for it - study and learn and keep learning – achieve your goals by being the best you can be and know that you are capable

Job title: Senior Software Developer

Time in Industry: 30 years

❝ I got into software at school where I did Computer Studies and learnt Basic programming. I was the only girl in the class. ❞

Advice for anyone starting out in the technology industry:
If you like a challenge, then software can be a very rewarding career.

Sarah Leach

WOMEN IN TECHNOLOGY

Trapeze®

Kelly Norgrove

Job title: Senior Project Manager

Time in Industry: 15 years

> " I learn new things and extend my skills on every project I take on - the thrill of a product launch is unmatched. "

Advice for anyone starting out in the technology industry:
Stick with it, we need more women in the industry! It is rewarding and satisfying with great career prospects.

Job title: HR Manager (Europe)

Time in Industry: 3 years

> " Its all new for me - I enjoy learning and it excites me knowing we make a difference with our software. "

Advice for anyone starting out in the technology industry:
Learn about different communication skills, you may get it wrong but just embrace it - its okay to ask questions!

Amanah Ayub